

A 'COLONIAL TRIP' TO MÉXICO FOR CAST A 2013

Cast A 2013's arrival day in México.

Did you travel to México with your Up with People cast? Did your child? Were you a host family during an Up with People tour to México? Many tours during Up with People's history include a visit to México and our current cast's tour is no exception. "Cast A 2013's current visit to México—the final country on their tour—will be a colonial trip," says Jose Armando Gonzalez Perez ('07A), Up with People's Mexican Tour Manager. The tour starts in Naucalpan (metro México City), heads to Toluca and Querétaro, and ends in San Luis Potosí. Both Querétaro and San Luis Potosí have been declared World Heritage cities by UNESCO. "What makes these four cities wonderful are their people, their amazing food, and their love for Up with People," says Gonzalez Perez.

NAUCALPAN: The cast worked with a renowned all-girls school called Academia Maddox and presented four shows to the Naucalpan community. One of the shows was a VIP event for the Naucalpan government. The city was co-sponsored by DCH, a business founded by the first female Up with People student from México and current member of Up with People's Board of Directors, Lupita Esparza ('73B). On departure day, the cast climbed the Pyramids of the Sun and Moon in the archaeological center of Teotihuacán.

TOLUCA: Toluca has become a second home in México to Up with People. The cast will work with a school called the Instituto Simón Bolívar and in a factory owned by the parents of current student, Miguel Razo. Thanks to the collaboration of the municipal government of Toluca, Up with People will perform in an amazing outdoor show in Plaza Morelos, the heart of Toluca's historic downtown.

QUERÉTARO: This city is very important to México as it played a large role in the country's independence. The cast will work with a local non-profit, Puerta Abierta I.A.P., which takes care of abused girls in the community. Puerta Abierta I.A.P. provides shelter, clothing, education, and psychological assistance. Proceeds from the Up with People show in Querétaro will go to Puerta Abierta I.A.P. so that they can continue to do their work.

SAN LUIS POTOSÍ: The cast's colonial tour ends in San Luis Potosí City which is famous for its Cantera stone streets. Cantera stone is a uniquely quarried volcanic rock mined exclusively in various regions of México and Central America. Up with People will bring its cultures to some of the poorest areas in town as well as performing two shows in support of the city's cultural department.

REGIONAL LEARNING DAYS PROVIDE UNIQUE EXPERIENCES FOR CAST A 2013

Written by Daniel Muradás ('13A), México, Education Intern

Regional Learning days are special days in Up with People's schedule. Not only do we get a glimpse of the cities in which we perform and work, but we also have the opportunity to engage with the community in a different way. During the current tour, Cast A 2013 has had the opportunity to visit:

- Disney's EPCOT Theme Park in Orlando, Florida
- A medieval castle of Gaazbeek in Sint-Pieters-Leeuw, Belgium
- City Hall in Atlanta, Georgia
- A NASCAR race in Daytona, Florida

Cast A 2013 cheered on Special Olympic participants like the young boy shown above.

One of the most recent regional learning activities was in Tiel, Belgium. Cast A 2013 had the opportunity to watch the Special Olympics, the world's largest sports organization for children and adults with disabilities. We attended as audience members and cheered for the athletes. We also provided encouragement as they worked to overcome different sports-related challenges.

These kinds of activities are important to both the community and the cast. They were able to provide support to these athletes and take part in an experience to which they might never have been exposed. "The smiles on their faces tell us that we were meant to be there. We feel very fortunate that Up with People allows us to have these great opportunities that impact not only the communities in which we visit, but also ourselves. Up with People's Regional Learning days are an excellent opportunity for the cast to learn more about a community and have fun!" says Kelli Pitts ('97C), Up with People Education Coordinator.

STAFF PROFILE: LESLIE KLEIMAN ('09B), CAST MANAGER, UP WITH PEOPLE

How long have you been on the road with Up with People?

I have traveled on the road in Up with People since Cast B 2009, my student semester.

What was your most memorable moment while on tour?

I'll never forget when Cast B 2009 was performing our first show in Mexico and we sang "De Que Color." I really fell in love with Up with People at that moment and what we do for the world.

What was the most strange food (to you) that you tried while on tour?

Pig's Blood Cake! And I'm a vegetarian!

What is your favorite Up with People song?

My favorite song is "One Person." This song is so close to my heart because I was part of the Production Team for the entire run of Up with People's show, A Song for the World. It's a great song filled with incredible memories.

What is your most memorable tour city?

My most memorable tour city is Erlin, Taiwan where I stayed in a Buddhist Monastery.

If you could plan an Up with People tour to anywhere in the world, where would you go?

I'd love to travel South America. I love the Latin culture. That part of the world hasn't heard our message in a long time.

When you pack for another tour, what are the five items you can't live without for six months?

Clean underwear, tennis shoes for my morning runs, my computer, mascara, and a nice pair of heels.

What is the most rewarding part of your job?

The most rewarding part of my job is seeing the growth in the students, staff, and myself.

STAFF PROFILE: GERT-JAN "OREO" ORIE ('89D), MANAGER, UP WITH PEOPLE EUROPE

What is your role with Up with People?

I am responsible for overall European operations including tour scheduling and management, admissions, alumni and European board relations, and the administration of the new office in Brussels, Belgium.

When did you first travel with Up with People?

I traveled as a student with Cast D 1989. I worked for the organization during most of the 1990's in various positions both on and off the road including Cast Manager for Cast 1995 A and 1996 A, and Regional Director for Germany and Austria.

What is your favorite Up with People song?

Room for Everyone.

If you could plan an Up with People tour to anywhere in the world, where would you go?

I would travel to Indonesia. Besides it being a beautiful country, it also has a fascinating culture.

If you decided to travel with Up with People for another six months, what are five items you could not live without?

I wouldn't bring anything. Materialistic things can be bought while traveling. Wait. I guess I would bring a camera as it would be a shame to not have pictures of memorable moments and places.

What is the most rewarding part of your job?

I love seeing the impact Up with People has on students, host families, and audiences.

What is one thing you would do differently if you were to travel again with Up with People?

I wouldn't do much differently than when I traveled. It was an amazing experience 25 years ago. I am glad to see the program is still going strong.

On April 20, over 400 Up with People alumni, host families, supporters, friends, and people new to the organization came together for our 2013 Gala: Reaching Beyond. Held at the Denver Marriott City Center and presented by Coldwell Banker Residential Brokerage of Denver, the event was highlighted by keynote speaker and last man on the moon, Captain Eugene Cernan, USN (Ret.), and emcee and NBC News Correspondent, Tom Costello ('82A). Participants also enjoyed a performance by a special Up with People Cast. Thanks to everyone's generous support, we were able to raise over $180,000 for Up with People's Global Scholarship Fund which supports students wishing to travel in our program. Thank you! For a list of all of our sponsors and in-kind donors, click here. Not able to attend the event? Check out Part 1 and Part 2 of this year's Gala. Make sure to save the date for next year's Gala on April 26, 2014 in Denver. See you there!

Keynote speaker and the last man to walk on the moon, Captain Eugene Cernan, USN (Ret.) (left), poses with Jeannie and John Fuller, long-time supporters of Up with People.

Pierre McNair ('92E) and Mario Romero ('94E) perform 'Party 'Round the World', a favorite song in the current Up with People show, Voices.

Gala emcee and NBC News Correspondent, Tom Costello ('82A), speaks about his Up with People story.

Brekken Baker, a second-semester student with Cast A 2013, performs the show's title song, 'Voices', with Sergio Campos ('10B).

Up with People songwriter, Pat Murphy ('72A), performs 'Reaching Beyond' with Caitlin Stroup ('09B).

Where did you grow up and how did you hear about Up with People?

I was born and raised in Trieste, Italy. I was a foreign exchange student in the United States last fall and saw the Up with People show in Newburyport, Massachusetts. I completely fell in love with the program.

Anna (middle) and other members of Cast A 2013, enjoying their time in Europe.

Which city has been your favorite on tour so far?

I loved all of the cities we've been to so far but my absolute favorite city has been Vero Beach, Florida. It was so beautiful.

What has been the best part about traveling with the cast?

It's hard to pick just one thing. I love traveling and really enjoy the community service projects. I also have so many new friends now!

What have you learned about yourself since joining Up with People?

I have learned how much more I am capable of. I also learned that I love to be in classrooms and speak to the students. I'm becoming very comfortable doing presentations in auditoriums full of 500 students!

If you could plan a tour in any city, where would you go and why?

I would love to go to Perú. I love the sites and the colors.

If you could repack your suitcase, which items would you leave behind? Is there anything you forgot at home that you wish you had?

I would totally leave most of my clothes at home. I realized, once we were on the road, that we don't have time to wear most of the nice clothes that I brought with me.

What have you enjoyed most about staying with host families?

I love feeling at home in other people's houses, even after a couple of days. It has happened more than once. That feeling of feeling comfortable and welcome; it's so nice!

What community project has been the most memorable for you?

In Fort Myers, Florida, I helped with some gardening projects in a place called "Beauty from Ashes." It's a place for girls and women to go if they have been victims of human trafficking. I had the opportunity to hear powerful stories and help make their home a little more beautiful.

BRING THE WORLD INTO YOUR HOME: HOST AN UP WITH PEOPLE STUDENT!

"It was a joy to be a host family for Cast A 2013. Our two students fit in with our family better than I could have ever expected. We welcome the opportunity to host again when you return."

This is one of countless experiences host families around the world have had by welcoming an Up with People student into their home. Not only will a host family learn more about a different culture, but they will also be able to share a piece of their lives in return.

Paul and Robin Bedford recently hosted two Up with People students from Cast A 2013 during their United States tour. It was their first experience with Up with People. When asked why they think hosting is important, they responded, "It was an opportunity to expand our children's knowledge and acceptance of other cultures and people." Up with People students share the same gratitude for host families. "It's crazy how close you can get to people when they let you inside their home and their hearts," says Diane Goldsmith ('12A), a Promotion Representative for Up with People.

We are currently looking for host families for July Staging and Orientation in Denver.
